

Heather King, DC, CCSP

Hkingdc299@gmail.com

Education

Palmer Chiropractic College Davenport IA 2/1999

Certified Chiropractic Sports Practitioner Palmer Chiropractic College 12/2013

Currently working on Certified Chiropractic Extremity Practitioner certification

Professional Practice

Dr Heather King has been in private practice in Wisconsin since graduating from Palmer Chiropractic College. She is currently a Doctor with Zelm Chiropractic in McFarland WI. She works with several local high school and college athletes. She emphasizes both family practice and works with sports injuries. She has a special emphasis on foot and foot related problems in practice. She also has been working with students during seminars or in a preceptor roll. She is an independent examiner for MCN doing exams and chart reviews for personal injury cases in southeastern Wisconsin

Professional Experience

Zelm Chiropractic McFarland WI 2016 – Current

- Established a family practice with an emphasis on treating sports injuries, neurological, muscles and extremities issues.
- Performed thorough examinations for both spinal and extremity complaints.
- Co-managed patient care with orthopedic, podiatrist, physical therapist and athletic trainers.
- Managed specialized service such as Physical therapy, rehabilitative exercise, tapping and myofascial work in both pain management and rehabilitative exercise programs to improve patient outcomes.

Pure Chiropractic and Wellness Waukesha WI 2010-2022

- Established a family practice with an emphasis on treating neurological, muscles, sports injuries and extremities issues.
- Performed thorough examinations for both spinal and extremity complaints.
- Co-managed patient care with orthopedic, podiatrist, physical therapist and athletic trainers.
- Managed specialized service such as Physical therapy, rehabilitative exercise, tapping and myofascial work in both pain management and rehabilitative exercise programs to improve patient outcomes.
- Responsible for staff training
- Responsible for clinic marketing
- Owned practice until it's sale in 2022

Golf Creek Family Chiropractic 2002-2010

- Private practice in ProHealth care facilities. Worked closely with ProHealth at Westwood Facility physical therapy department
- Established a family practice with an emphasis on treating neurological, muscles, sports injuries and extremities issues.
- Performed thorough examinations for both spinal and extremity complaints.
- Co-managed patient care with orthopedic, podiatrist, physical therapist and athletic trainers.
- Managed specialized service such as Physical therapy, rehabilitative exercise, tapping and myofascial work in both pain management and rehabilitative exercise programs to improve patient outcomes.
- Responsible for staff training
- Responsible for clinic marketing
- ProHealth Care made a decision in 2010 to discontinue offering chiropractic care in their owned facilities Practice was moved to private location with name change.

Additional information

- Instructional teacher for other chiropractors in extremity adjusting
- Speaker in the Women Chiropractic Unconvention October 2023 in Phoenix AZ